SUBJECT: Minutes of the Operating Division Training Officers' Meeting of 6 January 1956

advised that [redacted] responsible for arranging plausible cover stories for students [redacted] and will brief students on the training site, security measures to be observed while there, living quarters, and mail and telephone communications. A briefing sheet giving complete details will be read and signed by students as part of [redacted] processing.

3. Waiver of Phase III (CO) training prerequisites: The Chairman announced that the Clandestine Services Training Committee has agreed, and OTR has concurred, that the appropriate Senior Staff Training Officer, after consultation with the Division Training Officer concerned, will determine from a review of the students' training and work record whether a student has satisfied the CO (Phase III) training prerequisite requirement for entering into advanced or specialized training. However, this procedure should not be construed as amending or obviating existing regulations which provide for training waivers with constructive credit where appropriate.

A memo covering the principles will be forwarded at an early date, with the waiver form attached.
